Occupational Safety and Health Review Board Sets Sept. 3 Hearing in Anchorage

JUNEAU, Alaska—The Alaska Occupational Safety and Health Review Board has scheduled a hearing on Wednesday, Sept. 3 in Anchorage to consider challenges filed by an employer contesting citations issued by the Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development.

Citations are based on alleged violations of state occupational safety and health standards filed by the Division of Labor Standards and Safety.

The hearing will begin at 9 a.m. at the Workers' Compensation Appeals Commission Hearing Room, 1016 West 6th Avenue, Suite 402 and continue as necessary.

Advance hearing notices are provided to all parties of contested citations. Board hearings are open to the public as required by Alaska statute.

People with disabilities and special needs who need accommodations should contact Amy Romme at 907-465-2709 by Wednesday, Aug. 27.
